BETTER SPEECH POSTERS SHOWN AT HIGH SCHOOL

Cleverly illustrated posters for the promotion of better speech, which is being observed by a special program this week all over the country, are on display at the local high school library. Some of the posters were made by the Manual Arts section and others contributed by pupils having ideas worthy of recognition. Many of the posters are fine pieces of art and are made very attractive with the impressive slogans written upon them. The topic of one poster is "Sentenced for Life," illustrating a court scene with a jury made up of the "Educated Public," the victim being "Bad Grammar," who is found guilty of assault with intent to kill "Good English." Another design is that of "Good English," the football star, making a long run on the Rock Island field with some of the opponents, "That Thery" and "Ain't" lying "sprawled" on the ground. The "Scales of Success" show "Good English" out-weighing "Bad English." Another was to make "Good Speech As Good As The Ocean and Red Speech Light as It's Foam."

The Powerful Drama of the Unseen World
EARTHBOUND
With a Wonderful All Star Cast.

Note What These Men Say:
Maurice Tourneur's tribute: "The most interesting subject that has ever been screened. The production of 'Earthbound' marks a distinct advance in the art of motion pictures."
George Loane Tucker's statement: "There is a message in 'Earthbound' that the wide world is greatly and deeply interested in. I sincerely hope that everyone who liked my production of 'The Miracle Man,' will go to see 'Earthbound.'"

Don't fail to see this great picture.
"Earthbound" is one of the big achievements of the year, ranking with "The Miracle Man" for its dignified treatment of the spiritual, with "Behind the Door" for its dramatic tensely, with "Broken Blossoms" for its heart appeal, and with "Humoresque" for its story, atmosphere, and the skill of its players.
